

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

THE ministers who object to Sunday excursions are putting their views in no uncertain language.

ONE Reuben F. Kold, a Populist claiming the office of governor of Alabama should be disciplined for his seditious utterances.

THE voters of Kansas showed their good sense by burying Jerry Simpson and rejecting the woman's suffrage amendment by over 31,000 ballots.

SOME chap in Toledo has invented an air ship with wings. They need wings in that town to keep pace with their commercial and industrial progress.

THE men who are so busy agitating ship canals might remember the fate of the many miles of Ohio canals with some profit to themselves and the government.

MANY congressional districts gained by the Republican party at the recent election will be held in future if the leaders do what they believe to be the will of the people.

THE Republican party should not forget that while there is a powerful majority in Ohio, it will melt like snow in a strong sun if the leaders engage in factional fights.

THE Steubenville Gazette, at times a publication of some sense, thinks that the Democrats of this district did not treat Cokey right, and made a mistake by not endorsing him.

WHEN Breckenridge discovered that Madeline Pollard would not appear on the stage he engaged himself to a lecture bureau, and will soon be before the public, boutonniere, whiskers and cheek.

THE clear, concise account of yesterday's proceedings in the McGregor trial as published in the NEWS RE-VIEW last evening was appreciated, provided the number of extras sold count for anything. The avowed purpose of the NEWS REVIEW regarding ancient history is so well known that the public never loses an opportunity to express an opinion in a substantial manner.

A POLITICIAN'S SPEECH.

There was a singular scene in the banquet hall of the Union League club in New York the other evening when the Hon. Shiner Simpson standing next to Chauncey Depew made this speech:

"The days of the politicians is gone.
The politicians isn't in it any more.
Give us honesty at the ballot box and the people'll do the rest. The politicians didn't have anything to do with the result of the last election. D'ye want to know what did? I'll tell you.
In 1891, when th' workin' man come home Saturday night and dropped his wages in his wife's lap, she went an' paid th' butcher's bill an' th' grocer's bill an' th' baker an' she had somethin' left for herself. They went t' church th' next day an' worshiped God, and their children were happy an' had good shoes an' warm clothes.
This year, after two years o' Democratic rule, the cupboards are empty, th' good wife can't buy clothes, th' children are hungry, an' their cries tear the hearts o' their parents. These same people that three years ago had a plenty. Yes, fellow citizens, these same workin' people was walkin' aroun' with wrinkles in their bellies.
That's what done it, fellow citizens." The New York Sun reports the speech as it is given above, and bestows due credit upon Simpson for common sense.

HOLMES' BLACK LIFE.

He Has Swindled Many Insurance Companies.

TELLS THE STORY OF HIS CAREER

To Detective Holmes, After Trying to Bribe Him to Escape—His Family Composed of Several Dozen Wives and Children—Suspected of Several Murders.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—Arch Con-spirator H. H. Holmes, accompanied by Mrs. Pitzel and a pretty woman who calls herself Mrs. Holmes, have arrived in this city in the custody of Detective Crawford and Special Agent Perry, of the Fidelity Mutual Life association.
Mrs. Pitzel's 16-year-old daughter, Meda, and her 1-year-old boy were also with the party.

Holmes sat beside the detective with handcuffs on and the train had scarcely emerged from the Boston depot before the prisoner tried to bribe his captor.
He offered the detective $500 if he would allow him to hypnotize him so that he could escape. He said he had frequently hypnotized persons, having acquired the art from a college professor in the west. He said he could get the money at once from his wife and Mrs. Pitzel. When he saw that his words had no effect Holmes entered into general conversation and told the story of his life.

He said he was raised in Burlington, Vt., and was well educated in school there that at 15 he was a teacher. For some time afterwards he went to college there and later in Detroit. Here he formed the acquaintance of a medical student, who, he said, furnished the body in New York in the present case. He refused to divulge his name. During vacations they worked on farms to raise their college expenses, but one summer they found themselves without means and it was then that the medical man suggested the idea of getting a body and beating an insurance company. This was 12 years ago. The doctor got his life insured for $12,500, they obtained a body in Chicago, took it east, arranged the details of identification and successfully got the money with which they continued their studies. He refused to name the company thus swindled.

They worked the scheme afterwards with success, Holmes continued, obtaining sums ranging from $10,000 to $20,- 000. Once Holmes got his own life insured for $20,000. He went to a hotel in Rhode Island. At that time he wore a beard. He secured a corpse in Chicago, cut off the head and took the body to a lonely spot not far from the hotel. Then he shaved off his beard, returned to the hotel, asked for H. Jones, and engaged a room to wait for him.
He had brought the head with him and burned it beyond recognition in the fireplace of the hotel. This scheme, however, fell through, the mother of his wife, when she discovered it, threatening to tell the police and Holmes fled to the west.

Resuming his story, Holmes said that while living in Chicago about 18 months ago, he fell in with a typewriter girl and furnished a house on the outskirts, where they lived together. A younger sister came to visit them, and the woman grew so jealous of her that in a quarrel one day she struck her over the head with a stool and killed her. To save the woman with whom he was living, Holmes said he put the body in a trunk, loaded it with stones, and sunk it in the lake. This girl had property in Texas and he and Pitzel took it off her hands and sent her abroad. It was worth, he said, $10,000, and after getting it in their hands, they went through Texas, buying carloads of horses on notes on this property, but as they never had legal title to the property, the notes were worthless, and it is for this affair that they are wanted in Fort Worth.

To save this property, Holmes said he and Pitzel formed the scheme of swindling the Fidelity company. He told the detective that for the crimes he had committed he deserves to be hanged a dozen times.

Holmes is not lacking for money, as he himself admitted that at the present time he is supporting nearly two dozen persons, including the girl murderers, her mother and an imbecile brother; two orphan in Chicago who live in one of his properties, three separate alleged wives, and their children and his own mother and father in Kankakee. He would not give the names of the women.
He firmly maintained that Pitzel is alive in San Salvador and that he will hear from him through the personal column of a certain New York newspaper.

MEN'S SUITS.

In long single and double breasted coat, regent and dove tail we show the handsomest stock we have ever shown.

A telegram has been received by President Fouse of the Fidelity company to the effect that Howe, the St. Louis lawyer, is en route to this city, with McDonald in the capacity of his "adviser." It has been decided to arrest a number of other persons whose names have not yet been given out.
Special Agent Perry still maintains that Pitzel has been murdered. When in the west he saw the parents of Mrs.
Pitzel and they told him that their daughter had complained of the exorbitant fee charged by the St. Louis lawyer—$2,500. In corroboration of his murder theory, Mr. Perry said that he had from Mrs. Pitzel an exact description of her husband, agreeing in every respect with that of the corpse found in the Callowhill street house. Mrs. Pit-zel, he continued, was perfectly innocent of any complicity in the whole affair, and pressure of various kinds, to sign certain papers, but she told Perry that she had received only $500 in cash.
She said Holmes had taken $5,000 of the money and put it in a land speculation in Fort Worth in which Pitzel was also interested. Holmes told Perry that this was true.

In Texas, Perry said Holmes operated under the name of H. M. Pratt. He added that B. F. Perry, B. F. Pitzel and B. T. Lyman are one and the same man.
Mr. Perry further said that Holmes is said to have one wife in New Hampshire, from whom he claims to have been divorced and by whom he has a child 15 years old; another in Illinois, whom Mr. Perry himself saw, and by whom there is a 6-year-old child, and the wife who is at present in this city.

Mr. Perry intimated that he feared that Pitzel's children had also been murdered.

SOVEREIGN IS RE-ELECTED.

He and Hayes secure Their Old Jobs at the K. of L. Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—Grand Master Sovereign, has been re-elected without any opposition by the Knights of Labor general assembly. Messrs. Bishop of Massachusetts and Merritt of Colorado were nominated for foreman, the place now held by Bishop, and the latter was elected.

Secretary-Treasurer Hayes was re-elected, although there was some opposition. The expenses of delegates to the convention, amounting to about $2,500, were ordered paid.

The present members of the executive board were placed before the meeting and were elected with but a few dissenting votes. The members of the

GENERAL MASTER WORKMAN SOVEREIGN, board who received this hearty endorsement are as follows: T. B. Mc-Guire, Amsterdam, N. Y.; H. B. Martin, St. Paul, Minn.; C. A. French, Marlborough, Mass.; and James M.
Kenney, Omaha, Neb.

Washington, D. C., was chosen as the place for holding the next annual convention.

The officers were then installed by Henry T. Allen of Michigan. The committee on distribution then submitted 49 documents touching on legislation and recommended several amendments to the constitution.

The election of officers had been slated for the end of the convention, but it was determined to hold the same immediately so as to preserve harmony, as it was supposed that the Powderly faction might develop a stronger following.
There is plenty of work for the assembly and adjournment will probably not take place before the last of the week.

Powderly and his delegation have left the city without springing their sensational charges and applying for writs of injunction against the officers of the general assembly.

South and West Trade Congress.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—The south and west congress convened here today and meets until the 23d.

Weather Forecast.

Fair, except rain or snow near the lakes; warmer in eastern portions; increasing southwest winds.

A SOLEMN ENDING.

W. C. T. U. Has Exercises In Mrs. Woodbridge's Memory.

THE LADIES GO SLENNING.

Several Hours Spent Among Cleveland Dives Last Night—Miss Frances E. Willard Re-Elected President—Other Officers Named—Susan B. Anthony Talks.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 21.—The closing session of the W. C. T. U. convention was one of deep solemnity, the feature being the exercises in memory of Mrs.
Mary A. Woodbridge, late recording secretary of the national organization, who died about a month ago. The first exercise was the devotional service led by Mrs. Narcissa White King of Oregon.
After this Mrs. Lucy Stone Blackwell, daughter of the late Lucy Stone, spoke, as did also Mrs. Henrietta Skelton of California, Mrs. Della H. Cox of Washington and Mrs. Frances Griffin of Alabama. Susan B. Anthony briefly urged Woman's suffrage. Senator Williams and Senator Clark of the legislature talked, as did others of less note.

Mrs. Helen Bullock of New York took charge of the memorial service.
Mrs. Clara Hoffman of Missouri spoke, and Mrs. Alice Harris of Boston sang.
Miss Frances E. Willard led in prayer.
Mrs. Henrietta Monroe of Ohio also talked, and Rev. Anna Shaw pronounced the benediction. Adjournment followed shortly after the conclusion of these exercises.

The convention elected officers as follows: President, Miss Frances E. Willard; vice president-at-large, Mrs. L. M. S.
Stevens; corresponding secretary, Mrs.
Katherine Lewis Stevens; recording secretary, Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman; treasurer, Mrs. Helen M. Barker.

Last night's session was devoted to the topic, "The development of the crusade idea." Mrs. Anna M. Hammer, president of the Pennsylvania W. C. T.
U., was in the chair. After devotional services addresses were made on the subject by Miss Jessie Ackermann, Mrs.
L. S. Rounds of Illinois, and Mrs. Chika Sakurai of Japan. A "birthday offering" of money was then taken up, but the amount realized was not announced.
Thirty-two of the ladies in charge of Captain Truvelo of the Salvation Army, and Mrs. Edholm of California, went on a tour of the slums of the city, being gone until 10 o'clock.

Killed Saving Others.

XENIA, O., Nov. 21.—A prominent young farmer named William Hopping, residing east of this city some miles, was driving into town, when a lot of little colored children playing alongside the road ran right in front of his horse. In order to keep from crushing some of them he pulled back suddenly on the lines, bringing the horse against the fence. The horse, however, was not frightened and began lunging and striking Mr. Hopping, who was thrown out, twice in the chest, once directly over the heart, inflicting injuries from which he can hardly recover.

New Officers Elected.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 21.—The governing council of the Girls' Friendly society of America, one of the prominent young people's organizations in the Protestant Episcopal church, is holding its annual session in this city. Officers have been elected as follows: President, Mrs.
Thomas Roberts of Philadelphia; eastern vice president, Miss Hoppin of Cambridge, Mass.; southern vice president, Mrs. W. Remington of Baltimore; central vice president, Miss Grosbeck of Chicago; western vice president, Miss Kipp of California; chaplain, Rev. A.
E. Johnson of New Bedford.

Another Lease on Life.

GEORGETOWN, O., Nov. 21.—The circuit court for this subdivision, now in session here, has granted a continuance in the case of the state of Ohio against Edward H. Jones, now for the fourth time confined in the annex awaiting execution. Jones was to have been hanged on the 21st day of December, but as the circuit court does not meet here again until next April, he will be reprieved until that time. The continuance was granted on the ground that the defendant's attorneys had not had sufficient time to examine the bill of exceptions filed in the case.

Asked to Settle a Strike.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 21.—The state board of arbitration has been called upon by the mayor of Niles to exercise its powers in adjusting the differences between the Niles Iron, Steel and Tinplate works and their employees. The company demands a reduction of from 25 to 30 per cent in the wage scale in the tinplate department on account of the late tariff changes. The employees have accepted the services of the board, and the employees are expected to do likewise.

The Coat Case Up.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 21.—The Ohio national guard of inquiry in the Coat case is in session here. The Washington C.
H. board of trade sent three attorneys to protect the interests of Fayette county. Sheriff Cook is also here.

General Gordon to Lecture.

TOLEDO, Nov. 21.—General Gordon has consented to deliver six lectures in Ohio for the benefit of the Masonic home. He is booked to speak here tonight on "The Last Days of Confederacy."

THE DENVER STRANGLER.

He Is Supposed to Have Operated in Cincinnati and Other Places.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 21.—On the 25th of last July Mary Ekhart of Dayton was found dead in her room, at 292 Walnut street, this city, with a towel knotted around her neck, her room locked and no clue of the murderer left. A local paper connects this murder with that of Minnie Weldt in New York on May 31 and that of Josie Bennett in Buffalo, on June 30, to both of which the Cincinnati murder was similar in respect to manner and mystery. The paper then calls attention to the resemblance in circumstances between these three murders and the three strangling murders in Denver, namely those of Lena Tap-per, Sept. 26; Marie Contassot, Oct. 28, and Kiku Oyama, Nov. 3.
It suggests that all these murders were committed by one and the same man, the Denver strangler, as indicated by resemblance in method and concurrent circumstances. It calls attention to a letter left by Mary Ekhart, which mentions an unidentified man she had met, who was going to Denver. She also stated in some other note that she left that she intended to go to Denver.
The paper reasons from this that one man committed all these murders. The Cincinnati police will not admit that they are working up this case on this clue.

A Turf Congress Meeting.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 21.—The American Turf congress will probably hold their annual meeting in this city, beginning today, at the Burnet house. The report of the secretary will be read and any new applications for membership will be acted upon. Officers elected last year at their annual session were: President, W. L. Kirkman of Nashville, Tenn.; vice president, S. R. Montgomery of Memphis, Tenn.; treasurer, O. L. Bradley of Lexington, Ky.; secretary, E. C.
Hopper of Covington, Ky.

Injured by a Cow.

DELAWARE, O., Nov. 21.—Miss Helen Myers was attacked by a maddened cow and seriously injured. The beast was considered very gentle, but attacked the lady, and one blow felled her to the ground. Very thoughtfully Miss Myers climbed upon the cow's horns, and clung to her place to save her life.
Help came and she was released from her perilous position.

Headquarters at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 21.—Lieutenant Hiram Chittenden, engineer corps U.
S. A., has arrived here and will take charge of the proposed survey of a ship canal route as executive and disbursing officer of the commission appointed under the congressional resolution.
Offices will be established at the Journal building, in this city.

A Trackwalker Saves a Train.

CONNECTICUT, O., Nov. 21.—An attempt was made near this place to wreck the fast eastbound mail on the Lake Shore road. The would-be train wreckers placed a pile of ties across the track.
Fortunately a trackwalker discovered the obstruction and removed the ties before the train came along.

Bounced Out of $7,000.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Nov. 21.—Farmer William A. Jones of near Boonville, Ross county, has been bounced out of $7,000 by sharpers.

Lawyer to Call on Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Commander-in-Chief Lawler of the G. A. R., Adjutant Jones and Quartermaster General Bust are expected to arrive in this city today on their eastern visit. They will call on President Cleveland and to-morrow they will visit Baltimore and from Nov. 23 to 26 in New York. On Nov. 27 they will go to Philadelphia, where the resolutions adopted by the last encampment praising Past Commander-in-Chief R. B. Beath, for 25 years chairman on rules, regulations and ritual, will be presented. The resolutions have been engrossed on silver and are placed in an envelope of silver, with gold lining.

The Bonds Selling Well.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—The indications are that the present government loan of $50,000,000 will not only prove a great success, but that the aggregate of the bids will be far in excess of the amount of the bonds to be sold. As fast as received the bids are immediately placed, unopened, in the treasury vaults, so that it is impossible to know in advance of the general opening on next Monday at noon the names of the bidders, the amounts bid for, or the prices offered.

Accident on the Chicago Elevated.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—A cylinder head on the alley elevated road burst and caused a lively panic among the passengers on the train, although none of them were hurt. William Ulrich, fireman, jumped from the engine to the ground, a distance of 30 feet, escaping with a broken leg. George Warde, engineer, has not yet been found, and it is thought that he also jumped.

A Woman's Assault Sentenced.

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 21.—Alfred Getz, the Welsh mountain negro desperado, who was convicted of assaulting an 80-year-old white woman, has been sentenced by Judge Brubaker to undergo an imprisonment of 14 years and 5 months in prison, the extreme penalty being 15 years.

ROCK, FIRE AND DEATH

Fly With an Incompetent Miner's Blast.

SEVEN KILLED AND THREE HURT.

A Fearful Explosion at the Blanch Coal Mines at Collier's Station, W. Va. Miraculous Escapes From Death—The State Mine Inspector Investigating.

WHEELING, Nov. 21.—The explosion at the Blanch coal mines, on the Pan-handle railroad at Collier's station, was one of the most appalling mine disasters in this section of West Virginia. A new miner, an Italian, set off an over-charged blast which ignited the coal dust in the mine and a fearful explosion followed. There were 48 men in the mine at the time and the following are known to be dead:

Michael Rooney, Thomas Jordan, Thomas Tucker, married; David Rowe, married; John Donnelly, married and leaves 10 children; Antonio Gattie, married; and Muzzie Gassidee, married. The following are badly injured: Jose Refel, married; Raffie Necki, wife died; Jasper Lawrence and Thomas Morris, colored.

After the explosion there was a terrific whirlwind in the mine, carrying everything before it. Donnelly and Rooney were in the mine some distance from the explosion and were blown away and going toward the mouth. The force of the explosion drove them nearly 100 yards out of the mouth of the mine, and landed Rooney on the railroad track, killing him instantly, while Donnelly landed in a gully, striking his head against a post. His brains were dashed out and scattered for yards around. His wife, attracted to the place by the noise, was the first to find him, and she swooned away and is now being pre-treated by the doctor. There is little hope that she will recover.

The news of the disaster quickly spread, and in a few moments hundreds of people were crowded about the mouth of the mine and many heartrending scenes were enacted. The wives and children of the miners were frantic and the strong men were overcome. In a short time a rescuing party, consisting of George Benbow, Nick Kerns, Arthur Ward, John Meyer, John Stewart and William Davis, was organized, and went into the mine after the bodies of the dead. When the bodies of the victims were brought to the surface many women swooned at the sight.

Coroner Walkinshaw and the prosecuting attorney of Wellsburg were soon on the ground and took charge of the bodies and will conduct a rigid investigation. This is the second accident of the kind which has occurred at this mine. Just two years ago, Nov. 21, 1902, a similar explosion occurred in which three were killed and seven injured. The state mine inspector arrived today to take part in the investigation. There were miraculous escapes when the explosion occurred. William Davis was in the entry, 150 feet from the entrance, and when he heard the explosion he laid down, near the rib of the mine and the whirlwind, carrying rocks, fire and death, passed over him. An empty coal car standing at the entrance of the mine was blown 25 yards. The mine is owned by W. E. Smith of Wellsburg, and I. O. Smith of New Cumberland. The miners charge that the accident was due to the inexperience of the Italian miners, and declare they will not work with them any longer.

CHINA MUST SUE ALONE.

Japan Refuses to Have the President Mediate.

TOKIO, Nov. 21.—It is learned that the Japanese government has sent its reply to the note of United States Minister Bun asking whether a tender by the president of the United States of his good offices in the interest of restoring peace in the east, would be agreeable to Japan. Before reaching a conclusion the ministry gave the matter consideration for several days and finally settled to Mr. Dunn that although the friendly sentiments which prompted the government and people of the United States were deeply appreciated, the success of the Japanese armistice had been such that China should approach Japan directly upon the subject.

In view of the absence of Japanese and Chinese diplomatic representatives at Peking and Tokio respectively, this would imply that any communication between the two governments would be made through the American ministers to China and Japan, who, since the outbreak of the war, have had in charge the interests of the two countries.

LOVES GOOD GOVERNMENT.

New York Chamber of Commerce Celebrates Tammany's Defeat.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The one hundred and twenty-sixth annual dinner of the chamber of commerce of New York was given last night at Delmonico's. These banquets have usually been devoted to the discussion of trade and commerce, but the theme of the speakers upon the present occasion was "Good Government." There was a general rejoicing on the part of the speakers because of the result of the recent elections in New York city.

At the president's table were, in addition to Alexander E. Orr, the president of the chamber of commerce, who presided, James H. Eckels, comptroller of the currency; James S. T. Stranahan, William H. Webb, Samuel D. Babcock, Major General Nelson A. Miles, the Rev. Dr. R. S. Storrs of Brooklyn, William L. Strong, mayor-elect of New York; Rear Admiral Henry Erben, Murat Halstead, Charles S. Smith, Prince R. Ruspoli, mayor of Rome, and Horace White.

Among those present were Senator Calvin S. Brice, Henry W. Cannon, General Horace Porter, L. Edward Simmons, John Claffin, Samuel Thomas, ex-Secretary Charles S. Fairchild, General Anson G. McCook, George J. Gould, William Brookfield, Congressman Isidor Straus, Congressman Warner Miller, John D. Crimmins and others. President Cleveland, Parkhurst and others sent regrets.

ANARCHIST FRANCH DIES.

The Heartless Spanish Dynamiter Executed at Barcelona.

BARCELONA, Nov. 21.—Jose Salvadore Franch, probably the most desperate anarchist now living, the man who on Nov. 7, 1883, threw a dynamite bomb into the Liceo theater here, killing 20 people and wounding 50 others, was executed between 7:30 and 8 a. m. today. Franch spent the last 21 hours of his life in the prison chapel, which was heavily draped with black, and lighted yellow candles displayed on the altar produced a gruesome effect.

Franch refused to sign his death warrant as the law requires, exclaiming: "Long live Anarchy."

Upon entering the chapel, Franch refused to receive the priests, and to a Jesuit father who sought to administer religious consolation, the anarchist exclaimed bitterly: "Get out! I was only acting. Only pretending to be religious in order to live well and hoping to get a pardon. The crime I committed was an expiration due from the Bourgeoisie."

Franch's daughter is to be re-baptized and christened Liberated.

The National Grange Convention.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 21.—National grange at their session received the reports of the state members. The committee on mileage reported 3 cents per mile and $1 per day to delegates. Addresses on the revision of the ritual were made by several members. D. W. Wilson of Elgin, Ill., national secretary of the dairy association, addressed the grange.

Monument Corner-stone Laid.

BOYLTON, Va., Nov. 21.—The corner-stone of the monument to be erected here to commemorate the war of the private soldiers of the "Lost Cause" from this section was laid today with appropriate ceremonies. Distinguished speakers were present and delivered orations.

BORROWED $600.

Council Did Business In A Hurry—Bradshaw Avenue Laid Over.

All the members of council except Owen, Burton and Williams were present last evening, when the city legislature decided to do nothing with Bradshaw avenue at present, and authorized a loan of $600.

President Berg announced that they could do nothing with Bradshaw avenue, as no ordinance covering the matter had been drawn, and there was no tangible base on which to work. He warned council, however, that the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company had already started to erect kilns on the ground, and every day condemnation proceedings were delayed but added to the expense if the road was ever opened. Swindells thought the matter should be settled to the satisfaction of all interested parties, and believed that council had no desire to cripple the company in any way. President Berg said the firm were not alarmed on that score, and Kent saw no use in talking about it. Horwell wanted to hear what Colonel Hill had to say about it, but that gentleman thought that he would not present his side of the case at present, as council did not think that the present was the proper time. The resolution authorizing the mayor and clerk to borrow $600 for 60 days, with interest at 7 per cent, was read and passed unanimously, the money to be used on Norton street. Doctor Marshall broached the question of paying John Rinehart, stating that Rinehart wanted his money now that the work was done. Engineer George said he had an estimate of the work, and was requested by Berg to pass it over to the clerk. After Clerk Hanley had asserted that he had paid Rinehart $125, council adjourned.

Home From Tennessee.

Messrs. Crabbe, Foutts and Walters have returned from a hunting trip into the mountains of Tennessee, and brought with them enough game to keep their friends well supplied for days to come. They spent several delightful weeks, and met with as much sport as they anticipated. Game could be found in abundance, and some good shots were noted during the time they were away. The bag of ducks was exceptionally large and included some good specimens.

Happily Wedded.

At the First United Presbyterian parsonage last night, Rev. J. C. Taggart said the words which united in marriage Mr. Gus Brandenburg, the well known motorman, and Miss Gertrude Martin, a popular East End lady. The happy couple will forego a wedding trip, as the groom's duties will not permit a vacation, and they will go to housekeeping in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Brandenburg have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for a happy and prosperous married life.

—Miss Georgie Hall, of New Alexandria, who has been visiting friends in this city for several weeks, left yesterday afternoon for her home.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

Wellsville, East Liverpool and East End Branches.

A fine audience assembled in the Methodist Episcopal church, Wellsville, last night. The pleasant audience room was nicely fixed up, appropriate decorations and mottoes peculiar to the Epworth League appearing on every hand. Reverend Burt, pastor, was present, and responded to Thomas McGinn, of East Liverpool, the latter taking the stand that the business meetings of a league should be the leading feature of that league's life and character. Mr. Oglevee made remarks advocating earnestly the enforcement of parliamentary rules in all business meetings of the league.

The choir, composed of Wellsville and East Liverpool singers, made joyous music in the rendering of choice selections of song during the evening.

Mr. F. L. Wells spoke on the subject of "shall we adopt the reading course," objecting to being limited to a five minute speech; but he managed to make a telling talk respecting his topic within that time. Wells is a good talker and reasoner, and pleased his audience. Miss Griggs, East Liverpool, warmly advocated the reading course. Reverend Burt earnestly advocated the same idea. Reverend Sears, of East End, made the query, "how shall we read to best accomplish good?" Will Morris, East Liverpool, warmly supported the idea of literary work and a reading course as laid down by the general cabinet of the league.

Next in line of discussion came, "the league and the temperance question." Rev. R. O. Payne was booked for this topic, but was not present.

Reverend Sears spoke on the question, "what shall we give to missions?" The speaker caught his hearers at once by a funny story, well told, and from this on during the meeting there was more vim, life and energy displayed. Quite a number of other speakers, ladies and gentlemen, made earnest talks in favor of foreign missionary work.

Next on the list came the subject of "the league in the revival," opened by Miss Stella McNutt, East Liverpool, with an earnest essay, ably composed and nicely delivered.

Then the liquor question was brought to the front, Pastor Burt opening the battle and speaking in glowing terms of the beauty of a life of sobriety; upon the total abstinence from the use of intoxicants; of the duty of Christian people on this topic; of the duty of the state and nation to protect the youth of our land from the awful curse of dram drinking. Other speakers followed in the same vein, and the league was evidently a unit in favor of wiping out the curse of intoxicants from our land.

At the close of services in the main room, adjournment was made to the lecture-room, where eight members of the Junior Epworth league of East Liverpool pleased the large audience in military movements, skirmish drill and bayonet exercise, receiving very hearty applause.

WENT TO WHEELING.

Then Pete Eoff Got Drunk and Was Sent to the Jail.

Wheeling police court had nine cases Monday morning, and, as usual, the Ceramic city furnished the star attraction. In mentioning the case the News of Monday says:

"Albert Eoff, the next case, furnished the comedy of the occasion. He was arrested as a plain drunk by Officer Watson yesterday, and is as deaf as the proverbial adder.

"Where are you from?" asked the mayor.

"Can't hear," said Eoff, looking at him blankly. The mayor yelled the question at him again, and he answered East Liverpool.

"What are you doing here?" was the next question. Albert couldn't catch this question, and after the mayor got tired yelling at him, Officer Watson tried his lungs. But Albert couldn't comprehend, and the audience laughed at the awkward situation, while Eoff was as sober as a judge. Finally the effort to get Eoff to answer questions was abandoned, and the mayor remarked: "A dollar and costs. Try to get him to hear that, officer." But Watson didn't waste words, but handed Eoff the warrant with the amount of the fine and costs plainly written on it.

"No money," said Eoff laconically, and he was taken to the jail."

Although Albert is the first name given by the prisoner, he is better known here as Pete, and his propensities for consuming red-eye are not by any means limited.

SUNDAY DESECRATION.

More Ministers Objecting to Excursions.

The following letters fully explain their meaning.

DEAR SIR—The Christian people and peace loving citizens of East Liverpool can not overlook your strange and unusual action in running an excursion train through this city to Pittsburg on last Sabbath, Nov. 18.

Therefore will you permit the following letter in behalf of a large number of people in this place. This action seems very unusual on your part for the following reason.

First—There was no special call for this, the chrysanthemum exhibition at Pittsburg being comparatively an unimportant affair.

Second—You placed the price of ticket for the round trip so low (75 cents) as to confess thereby that some unusual inducement—some great temptation—was necessary to lead the people to travel on Sabbath.

Third—Because the plan leads to lawlessness and Sabbath desecration, as proven by this very excursion, if reports are true.

Fourth—Because this is a direct violation of the law of God, the law of our land, and the time honored custom of the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad. These last reasons are so well known to you that they need no argument.

Please note, sir, that the matter as in substance above stated, was presented last Sabbath evening, Nov. 18, 1894, to the congregation of about 700 at the Presbyterian church of this city, and an expression asked. By a rising vote the entire audience, so far as known, placed themselves on record against this movement and respectfully but emphatically protest against Sabbath running of trains, and ask you to adhere to the time honored custom of Sabbath observance.

Yours very truly

JOHN LLOYD LEE.

Pastor of Presbyterian church, East Liverpool, O.

Sabbath morning the Methodist Protestant congregation adopted unanimously the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad company have all these years desisted from running passenger trains on the Sabbath day and,

WHEREAS, The franchise of this road was granted by the village of East Liverpool upon condition that there should be no Sabbath passenger traffic.

Resolved, First—that we most earnestly protest against this innovation and desecration of the Sabbath day. Second—we call upon the railroad officials to keep commercial faith with this city and fulfill the conditions of the charter. Third—we believe this departure is an unjust discrimination against the best class of citizens, who, believing in the American Sabbath as an American institution, willingly obey the Divine command, refuse to patronize "the Sunday excursion," in favor of the criminal classes who regard not God nor seek the public welfare by giving such an exceeding low rate of fare.

REV. R. B. WHITEHEAD,

GEORGE HALL, Sec. Chairman.

MR. WILCZEK

Played a great fantasia by Wieniawski and a Spanish dance by Sarasate. His tone is full, ringing, beautiful; execution perfect, and accomplished with marvelous ease apparently, and intonation correct. He glides over very difficult passages with subtle ease and absolute precision. His staccato bowing is very fine, and his harmonic playing, even in the swift passages, is par excellence. In the Spanish dance he showed his mastery of the sensational eccentricities which usually work the audience up to the most explosive expressions of approbation. The combined staccatos and left hand pizzicatos were executed with ease that excited wonder. —Pittsburg Leader, Dec. 17, '93. At the Grand Opera House tonight at 8:45.

In Police Court.

Woodie Orr was found by Officer Supplee in a drunken condition in E. R. Little's haymow yesterday afternoon. The patrol was called and Woodie was hauled to the coup. This morning he was before Mayor Gilbert, fined $6.00, gave an order for the amount and was released.

A couple of small boys were "initiating" a newcomer last night when the people in that neighborhood objected to their warwhoops and called the police. Officer Badgely arrested the boys and they were taken to jail. They were released on promise to appear this afternoon.
